

UKBOOKWORM NEWSLETTERS

The new Data Protection Act for the UK came into force on May 25th 2018

We could be potentially heavily fined if we are accused of sending emails to customers who haven't granted us permission to send them or keep their details on our system.

To request our Newsletter and give us the temporary right to keep, securely, the following data about you.

We will only keep the following information.....*

- 1. Your name & email address
- 2. Your delivery address
- 3. A contact mobile number. (Required by all couriers)
- 4. Your buying history

For all customers who purchase numbered limited editions from us, we record the numbers ordered, the customer email address and name. This is for the purpose of matching future titles in a series if a customer requests further books. We do not use this information for any other purpose and do not share this with any third party. Any customer may request to be removed immediately from this list.

This data will be kept on a private secure database and never be shared with any third party.

So if you would like to receive our newsletter and personalised emails then please acknowledge and fill in the following details needed.

- 1. I would like to request that I receive regular newsletters and personal emails from UKBookworm.
- 2. I agree to allow G. C. Manning & J. P. Manning Trading as UKBookworm to keep my data as set out above* to facilitate their providing me a service to acquire the products I request until such time as I may revoke this permission.
- 3. I understand I can cancel this permission at any time and it will be removed promptly.
